Mr Jacobs

If the reports about a tweet or statement supporting the erroneous & misleading statement by Donald Trump are true (I am not sure) then YOU must name the individual who made this statement.

No one at your agency can kowtow to the president or WH to lend credibility to his simple mid-speak while undermining the agency's reputation.

No unqualified individual deserves the ability to demand special treatment by your agency. This is not about the maps anymore; it is about #45 trying to control both the flow and what information is given to the American people.

If this is true, I hope that you will speak out in defense of the truth even if it may cost you your job.
